

She Comes in Wind, She Comes in Flame

A Song of the Holy Spirit

Barbara J. Wyatt-Bond

Roger C. Bond

Em C D Bm Em C D Em

1. She comes in wind, she comes in flame, she comes in pas - sion deep.
2. She comes, a kiss to be - stow, in bright - est ear - ly spring.
3. She comes to us in gen - tle rain, and the coo - ing of the dove.
4. She comes, a storm of an - ger at in - jus - tice in the world.

6 Em C D Bm Em C D Em

She comes, a gen - tle lull - a - by, a com - for - ter and friend.
As she flits by and brush - es cheek, and makes the heart to sing.
She comes to us in cries of pain of those we fail to love.
We do not hear be - cause we won't, we turn our hearts a - way.

11 Em D C B7

With arms of love en - fold - ing us, giv - ing peace and joy in dark - est night,
We feel her awe - some pre - sence, in cre - a - tion all a - round us,
She comes to us in ma - ny forms, in rush of wind and burn - ing flame,
She works in us un - til we heed and do what we are called to do,

16 C D Em [E+ last verse]

a love that will not end.
the way, the truth, the life.
God's pas - sion - ate love to make known.
bring hope, bring life, bring peace.
