

(I Just) Died In Your Arms Tonight

Words & Music by Nicholas Eede

$\text{♩} = 124$

The first system of music features a guitar part with a treble clef and a piano accompaniment with grand staff notation. The guitar part consists of four measures of whole notes, each corresponding to a chord diagram above it. The piano accompaniment has a treble clef with a steady eighth-note accompaniment and a bass clef with a simple bass line.

The second system continues the guitar and piano accompaniment. The guitar part has four measures of whole notes with chord diagrams above. The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic patterns. The word "Oh," is written at the end of the system.

Oh,

The third system features the vocal line in the guitar part and the piano accompaniment. The guitar part has five measures of notes with chord diagrams above. The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic patterns. The lyrics "I, I just died in your arms to - night. It" are written below the guitar part.

I, I just died in your arms to - night. It

Verse 2:

Is there any just cause for feeling like this
 On the surface I'm a name on a list
 I try to be discreet but then blow it again
 I've lost and found it's my final mistake
 She's loving by proxy no give and all take
 'Cause I've been thrilled to fantasy one too many times.

Oh, I, I just died in your arms etc.
