

Help Is On Its Way

Words and Music by Glenn Shorrock.

1. Why are you in so much hur - ry? Is it real - ly worth the wor - ry?
 2. Are you al - ways in con - fus - ion, sur roun - ded by il - lu - sion?

Look a - round. Then slow down. What's it like in - side the bub - ble?
 Sort it out. You'll make out. Seem to make a good be - gin - ning.

Does your head e - ver give you trou - ble? It's no sin. Trade it in.
 Some - one else ends up win - ning. Don't seem fair. Don't you care?

Hang on. Help is on its way. I'll be there as fast as I can.

"Hang on," a ti - ny voice did say from some - where deep in - side the in - ner man.

Don't you for - get who'll take care of you. It don't mat - ter what you do. Form a du - et. Let him sing mel - o - dy. You'll pro - vide the
